Summer 2009 Newsletter July 6 to Aug. 21. New Students: Fall choices

Welcome to our new summer students! Each year CPAM offers a fun fast paced summer session concluding in the Sampas Pavilion Performance on August 21st. We are excited to have you this summer and encourage you to choose a fall class early in the summer to reserve your placement before many new students register at our OPEN HOUSE.

Our returning students have already reserved their fall choices in order to secure a spot. We keep our classes to 10 to 15 students depending on age to give each student our individual attention. As a summer student you have the opportunity to reserve a fall class that fits into your schedule. Simply see the Fall 2009-2010 schedule attached, choose your class and sign up for that class with Miss Michelle in the Office before or after class or at OPEN House.

January 2009 American Academy of Ballet Performance Awards. Students Anastasia Michitson and Kaitlyn Odum perform ballet choreography for awards from AAB of NYC. All CPAM students are taught choreography and dance syllabi from our affiliate memberships.

Adult Dance Classes on Mondays

At CPAM we have many adult dancers whose children take class or who danced in younger years or who just have always wanted to learn something new. During the summer is a great time to try a new style of dance in a short summer session. This summer we are excited to offer: Belly dance, Yoga/Stretch, African, Israeli and Hip-Hop dance. Sign up in the office.

Sampas Pavilion Performance to raise money for St. Jude's"

This summer we would like to do something special, something to make a difference in the life of a child who is not able to enjoy a summer of dance/drama or any kind of activity because they are too sick with cancer.

We enjoy performing at a FREE outdoor venue in the summer, to show our appreciation and to give to those less fortunate in their health; we will ask those who attend Sampas to support the work that helps sick kids at St. Jude's through CPAM's Summer Sampas Pavilion Performance on August 21st.
